

MILLION WANTED FOR RELIEF OF ARMENIA, SYRIA

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief has begun a campaign to raise $1,000,000 in the next thirty days. The committee's receipts last month were $839,244.03, practically all of which has already been cabled to various distribution centers to meet immediate needs, or has been used to purchase food and clothing to go on the United States collier "Caesar," America's 1916 Christmas ship which sails for Beirut next week.

The destitute victims dependent on the committee's efforts number 2,000,000, throughout Turkey, Persia, Syria and Palestine. The cargo of the Christmas ship which will minister only to the region around Beirut will provide necessities to a small proportion of these 2,000,000 for not more than two or three weeks. Entire regions about Tiflis in Russia, Tabriz in Persia, Adana, Smyrna and Konak must be served at once by direct remittances by cable.

Altogether at least $5,000,000 is required to preserve the women and children survivors of massacre, deportation and lack of food. Not only food but shelter, bedding and clothing must be provided to protect these sufferers from the cold. The money to be raised in the next thirty days will be cabled for these purposes to the American relief commissions in the various distribution centers. Gifts made at once through the committee's treasurer, Charles R. Crane, 70 Fifth avenue, will form a part of the earliest of these remittances.

Among the members of the committee who are working for "A Million Dollars in Thirty Days" are, Henry Morganthau and Oscar Straus, both former ambassadors to Turkey, Chas. W. Elliot, Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop

POSTOFFICE OPEN TWO HOURS ON MONDAY A. M.

To allow the postoffice employees a little of the rest they deserved but did not get on Christmas Day, Acting Postmaster William C. Petersen announced this afternoon that the postoffice will be open Monday, New Year's Day, only from 8 to 10 o'clock that morning. All departments will be open except the money order division. There will be no delivery by carrier in the morning. No money orders will be issued Monday at the general delivery window as the day is a legal holiday.

Greer, Arthur, Curtiss James, Dr. John R. Mott, James L. Barton, Samuel T. Dutton, Arthur J. Brown, Frank Mason North, Talcott Williams and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise.

The entire expenses of the committee are met privately by certain of its members, so that every cent received is used directly for relief.

DISPOSITION OF LITTLE GIRL IS PUZZLING COURT

Whether the father or mother shall have custody of their adopted child is the rather delicate question that Juvenile Judge Whitney will have to decide tomorrow morning.

The mother, who is part-Hawaiian, is living in Waikiki with the three-year-old girl who, thanks to Probation Officer Joseph Leal, is American. The father is said to be a Hindu and, from what the juvenile court officers have learned, the little girl was adopted on the mainland some time ago.

A separation of the father and mother is said to have been the next step in the case and the father recently arrived here and has demanded the custody of the child. The mother also demands her custody. So Judge Whitney will have to decide in whose care the youngster shall be placed.

BARFOOT MAN ROBS WITH DOG

A barefooted burglar with an attentive pet dog is becoming so bold in Waikiki that one home there was entered at dinner time last night and another entered in the early evening when residents were in the immediate vicinity of the place. Chief McEluffie has good suspicions of whom the man may be and has detailed two men to closely watch the district visited.

When Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Kirchhoff left their cottage to go to dinner last night they took extra precautions to lock their doors. When they returned a half hour later some one had evidently entered the front door with a pass key, as it was open, and had hurriedly ransacked the house, apparently in search of money, leaving by the rear door after stealing little more than a revolver. There were bare footprints all around the house, which could be traced down the beach.

A short time later, evidently the same man entered the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John Vickers, for he again made off with a pistol. A few nights ago an adjacent cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Clark was entered while they were away and it is thought it was reentered after they had returned and had gone to bed. Another resident in that vicinity recently lost $10 in coin from her home and two or three other cottages have been entered in the last few weeks.

A 38-caliber Iver Johnson revolver, thought to be Kirchhoff's, was found this morning by a Japanese boy, Nakakama, of John E. Road, in a pond near the Mochizuki Club, not far from the Kirchhoff cottage, and turned it in to the police.

DESIRE TO STAY, CAN'T FIND HOME

If a house, a nice, big, presentable home with lots of lanais and bath-rooms and furnishings and servants' quarters to be had here at once, Honolulu may not lose a party of prominent visitors who are here and want to stay three months; if not the visitors are about ready to go home or on to the Orient. Rev. J. Townsend Russell, an Episcopalian clergyman of national reputation, is the party's head. He is at the Moana Hotel.

"We don't want to live in a hotel unless we have to," said the minister to a Star-Bulletin reporter today. "We want a big, roomy house—we don't care particularly whether it is on the beach or not—where we can all have lots of conveniences and comforts. We are willing to pay a good price for anything desirable."

The visitor was at one time arch-deacon of the Episcopal churches of Brooklyn, but for several years has spent his time traveling, writing and lecturing. At present his home is in Washington, D. C., which he declares is now the most beautiful city in the United States and is destined to be the prettiest in the world. Others in the party are Mrs. Russell; their son, J. Townsend Russell, Jr.; the latter's tutor, Prof. Edwin Lathrop Baker, of literature, languages and music; Mrs. Russell's cousin, Miss Lucella C. Smith, and maid.

"The parking and boulevarding of Washington has gone back to the scheme of Washington and Jefferson," says the visitor, "and the old French plan is being revived. With the White House, the capitol, the $5,000,000 Lincoln memorial and the magnificent pleasure building on the four corners of a kite-like diagram and Washington's monument in the center, one of the finest arrangements in the world will be realized. In and about this kite will be grouped the government buildings."

Dr. Russell is a trustee of Kenyon College (Gambier, Ohio), of which Guy H. Buttolph is a graduate, and is also a member of the Archeological Society of America. In the latter capacity he hopes to inspect and study any ancient forms of Hawaiian work, such as heiaus, if he remains during the winter.

ARMY ORDERS

Pursuant to instructions from the war department, the following named enlisted men will be sent to Fort McDowell, Cal., on the first available transport for discharge:

Pvt. George W. Fenrich, Troop D, 4th Cavalry; Frank A. Wagner, Battery F, 9th Field Artillery; and Ernest M. Cove, Company E, 2nd Infantry, on account of habits which render their retention in the service undesirable.

Pvt. Joseph Gillett, Coast Artillery Corps, 1st Company, Fort De Russy, on account of traits of character which render his retention in the service undesirable.

Pvt. Julius A. Carter, Company H, 25th Infantry, on account of habits and traits of character which render his retention in the service undesirable.

Pvt. First Class Herbert E. Ramsey, Company D, 2nd Engineers, is relieved from duty in the office of the department engineer, to take effect January 1, 1917, and will proceed to Fort Shafter, reporting on arrival to his commanding officer for duty.

SETTLE CASE OF CAPTAIN NELSON

For a consideration of $50 the government has dropped an action for alleged debt of $267.50, which it brought recently against A. W. Nelson, captain of the steamer Ecuador, and former captain of the Korea of the old-Pacific Mail line.

When Nelson brought the Korea to this port on February 24, 1915, there were 12 1/4 pounds of opium aboard which was not included in the manifest, according to the government's complaint. This opium was valued at $267.50. Shortly after S. C. Huber became U. S. attorney, a suit was brought against Nelson for the recovery of an amount equal to the value of the drug.

A number of other actions for debt have been brought against captains of steamers, the circumstances being the same as in the Nelson case. These cases are still pending, many of the captains having left these waters.

MORE MONEY IN MAUI AND KAUAI

Reports of Maui and Kauai tax assessors which have just been received by Territorial Treasurer Charles J. McCarthy show that both islands will have an increase in tax money for the year 1917.

Maui's assessor reports that the net increase of assessment over the last annual period is $7,798,019, while that for Kauai is given as $3,541,480.

This means, taking into consideration such data as is available, that Kauai will receive at least $23,609.86 more than last year and Maui will receive an increase of $51,986.78. This is the minimum estimate; the actual figures will be more.

Treasurer McCarthy declines as yet to estimate the tax rate for the coming year, but D. L. Conkling, county treasurer, guesses it lower than the present rate of 1.273.

ELECTRICAL PARTY THRILLS

GUESTS AT LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Music by wireless and other electrical marvels formed the unique entertainment offered the other night by Horace J. Prince, 2389 West Twenty-third street, whose den and garage served as scenes for a demonstration by Earl Hanson, 2534 Fourth avenue.

Hanson gave a demonstration of wireless telephony, holding a conversation with a distant fellow-worker in a whisper. He sent music by wireless by means of an apparatus connected in no way with the instrument from which the music came. He demonstrated a wireless fog signal showing how a captain on his bridge could know how near to shore his vessel was sailing, no matter how heavy the fog, and displaying also how a ship could be guided from shore even if there were no wireless operator aboard.
